

Our Professional Service Team

Telephone:

+86 (21) 2212 3422

Email:

grace.xie@kpmg.com

Name	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Grace Xie
Position	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Head of Life Science, Tax
Qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Member of Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia● Member of Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants
Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Grace started her career as a professional accountant in 1993 in Sydney, Australia. Grace joined KPMG Hong Kong in 1998 to specialise in PRC tax. She moved to KPMG Shanghai in 2001. In her career as a tax consultant, Grace has rendered advice to multi-national clients in a wide variety of industries, including the manufacturing, trading and service sectors. Grace advises clients on corporate and personal taxation and business matters relating to the establishment of business entities in the PRC, the structuring of remuneration package and the on-going operation. Grace also has extensive experience in advising multi-nationals on the restructuring and M&A activities in China.
Industry sector experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">● Grace has worked with a number of large MNC pharma companies in China over the last 10 years. She has worked with them on a number of major M&A transactions, including cross-border acquisition, onshore joint venture formation and legal entity separation.● Grace has rich industry knowledge with regards to the tax issues pertinent to the Life Science sector in China. She has also published a number of articles in the China Looking Ahead publication with International Tax Review on the tax management of Life Science sector in China. Her recent publication on the tax impact of “two invoices system” has been widely circulated amongst the industry players.