Martyn Huckerby is an International Partner in the Corporate Group of the Shanghai office of King & Wood Mallesons, where he specialises in corporate, regulatory, competition/antitrust and telecommunications law.

Advising clients on the establishment and expansion of businesses (including joint ventures) in China and across Asia has led Martyn to gain broad expertise on general corporate, M&A, real estate and employment matters. Martyn has advised on a range of completed acquisitions and distribution arrangements in China. Martyn has also advised on numerous employment matters (including arbitrations and employment contracts) and settlement of commercial disputes.

Martyn regularly speaks at public conferences and seminars on corporate and regulatory issues. He is also the author of various published articles in Australia, US, Europe and China. Martyn is admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of NSW and the High Court of Australia, and has previously practised in London and Shanghai at a "Magic Circle" law firm and in Sydney.
