

Steven Cao Founding Partner

- Ph.D., Fudan University & the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, doctor, minor in Healthcare Economics
- Served as executives of global 500 medical companies, such as France's Sanofi, Eli Lilly, American GE, United States Ai Erjian and Japan Wei material. Nearly 20 years experiences in medical industry, medical service, clinical research, registration, medical affairs, sales and marketing, and other work involving drugs, medical equipment, medical beauty industry. He founded CRO company, Chinese general agent of the United States of America's heart supplies manufacturers
- Has a wealth of knowledge in the field of medicine and pharmaceutical brand management and marketing experience, has successful managed more than 10 brand marketing. Now his main research area is the home transformation of the domestic and foreign emerging medical technology